Soccer Challenge, Chairman: Charlie Blandford

St. Francis of Assisi and St. Louis Councils teamed up to run the Annual Soccer Challenge during the St. Francis Festival. Brother Knights set up the net and playing field, ran the competition, and judged the contestants. Only about 10 children participated this year, far fewer than in previous years. This low participation was most likely due to COVID-19 virus concerns. However, the participants really enjoyed the event and it was great to have the two councils work together. As an observation, the majority of children who are interested in soccer now play on travel and neighborhood teams on Saturdays and
